Feature, Part One – The Renford Books

The featured book this issue is The Renford Books, a book about the books. I started out to explain the core message of each book to be used in postings and advertising. It is hard for me to do something half way. I really examined my purpose of writing each book. Later, I decided that to completely explain the heart of each book, I would have to explain how I came to write it. In other words, what was the impetus for it. Finally, I decided that it is important for readers to know what they can expect to get out of reading each of them. I believe that anyone who reads a Renford Book will want to read another one. For this reason, the formula for this book is an explanation of each, how it came to be written and what one can expect to get out of it.

Over the years, a writer is likely to get a number of questions from readers, friends, detractors and critics. In this book I take the time to answer as many questions as possible.

Why did you write these books?

Why were they written in so many different genres?

Why are the Universal Laws the subject matter regardless of genre?

What distinguishes the Renford Books from other books by Christian, Buddhist or Hindu or Muslim writers?

Why did I write the Renford Books? I was compelled to do so! I could not keep from writing each of them as they came into my consciousness and I did little else until each was finished. I had to get my answers on paper to the questions on the subject matter as completely as I could answer them. It was not as if I were searching for something to write about. Writing each book was a mission I had to complete. The same is true of my blogs, essays and articles. What I saw written on various subjects I found was simply insufficient or inaccurate, and I wanted to address the subject.

There was a well-known teacher in college who used to tell the ministerial students, “If you can keep from preaching, don’t preach.” His point was it must be an all consuming thing for you or you won’t be any good at it. I feel the same way about my writing. If I could have kept from writing these books, I would have done so.

Why were the Renford Books written in so many genres? What genre I was writing in was not a consideration. I was not cognizant of genres. I would have an idea for explaining the Universal Laws and would then consider how to best explain them. Whether it was The House That Namuh Built, an allegory that might appeal to a metaphysical oriented reader or The Revealer that might appeal to a Christian reader, the essence was the same. Both books contain illustrations and explanations of each Universal Law. I was not consciously writing in different genres. I was conscious only of the need to explain each Universal Law in such a way that a particular type of reader would gain understanding.

I only became aware of genres when I found In Search of Self in the Poetry Section, The Laws of Material Wealth in the Business Section and The House That Namuh Built in the New Age Section of a major bookstore. It appeared most writers had their collections neatly together because they were writing for one market.

Many of my books were written before there was any thought of publishing. I simply felt the need to express in writing what I had come to know. Eventually I realized that I had over 700 pages, single spaced, and without division of subject matter. I had given no title to this writing. It was simply my thinking on a wide variety of subjects.

Once I began my study of what was to become The Father Confusors and The Core Teachings, and when I did decide to put this writing into books, I simply extracted from this body of writing to place them with similar subject matter.

Some of the books were based on inspiration I received in places as varied as London (The Laws of Material Wealth) and Missouri. (The House That Namuh Built). Usually these books were limited until I began to add to them with more understanding as to why I was writing them. Later, during the pandemic of 20 and 21, I found a book in my Renford Books file folder on my desk top. I did not recognize it and thought that I had filed someone else's book. In fact, I had written most of it 8 years earlier. I had, to some degree, cannibalized it for other books and just forgot about it. I began working on it again taking out what had been used elsewhere and completed it. It was Original Science and is now in print. This caused me to review some of my writings that had never been put into book format. During this period, I published Religions of the World, Half Enlightened Masters, Language of the Mind and Contemporary Revealers.

Why write so much about the Universal Laws? When asked this question in “Q & A Sessions” after a speech or class, I have stated that there is nothing else to write about. The audiences thought I was joking, however, as the old saying goes, “Many a truth is spoken in jest.” If readers become aware that the Universal Laws are, in fact, the rules of the game of life, and begin the process of identifying and verifying them, they will become aware that there is nothing else. These Universal Laws encompass all there is to know. Every aspect of life on earth, the school where we mostly fumble around, is governed by these invariant principles. When we are familiar with the rules governing anything we have better understanding and are more effective.

What religion are you promoting? I do not promote any religion. Many people like to ask this question because they feel more comfortable if they can label you. Then they can put you in a box and file you away as a Catholic, a fundamentalist or just a Christian, Muslim, Buddhist or Hindu. When they can do that, they think they know you and they can move on.

I founded the Institute of Applied Metaphysics to study the Masters and the world’s religions. I have two books that express my findings and thinking. The Core Teachings and Religions of the world. In the first I am showing that the Masters all taught the Universal Laws. Those who came after them were the organization builders. I am far more interested in what the Masters said than what those of lesser light had to say. I do have more time for those who are acknowledging there are Universal Principles.

I can maintain respect for their traditions no matter how wrong I may think they are. All of these traditions and doctrines are simply part of the process of evolution and unfoldment. The Universal Laws, mysteries and truths are often clouded by doctrines and dogmas but the Laws are still present. When a new religion, or even a new branch of an old one, is formed it almost immediately begins to calcify. They begin to defend their doctrine, build walls and the individual process of self-realization is subverted to the new doctrine that has been created.

I founded the Church of Revelation because of the need for supporting graduates of the Institute. I was impressed by the thinking of Krishnamurti and Carl Jung who felt that religious organizations put the interest of the membership (the group) above that of the individual. Krishnamurti specifically stated that the organization formed by the Theosophical Society and Anne Besant for his benefit needed to be discarded because it would get in the way of the individual's process of self-discovery.

In some respects there is little difference in what I have done and other writers have done but in the content and intent of the Renford Books there is a great deal of difference

I am not keen on making comparisons with other teachers and writers. It is not a good practice as we all need to focus on our purpose for being here. I have no intent to point out the short comings of a book or its writer, nor do I want to inordinately blow my own horn. Most writers wrote what they were moved to write based on issues and events of their time. I outline in my book, My Mission, My Way, to the best of my ability, how I came to view my purpose.

The organizations I have created include the Institute of Applied Metaphysics, the Church of Revelation, the Renford Broadcast Network the Laws of Material Wealth Personal Development Program and IAMPress, Inc.

My purpose is to teach the Universal Laws and how to identify and verify them in one's own life experiences. No one can do this for someone else. It is not always pleasant because we have to examine life experiences even if they have been traumatic. It is often in these experiences that we would like to forget that the opportunity presents itself for identification and verification. This is the only way I know to identify the Laws that are in play.

While teaching all the Universal Laws, the Masters tended to stress one over the rest. When asked about the secrets that Jesus said he came to reveal, he stated the most important Law is the Universal Law of Love. Buddha stressed the number one law to be that everything changes and all our problems come from resisting these changes. Lao Tzu tended to stress the WU, or balance and harmony. Maharishi Mahesh Yogi and Charles Fillmore stressed the Universal Law of Being, that we have certain innate powers because of the indwelling of God in man.

When contemporary writers and teachers stress something like the Universal Law of Attraction, it is as if they are giving you a 13 piece puzzle and holding back 12 pieces. I felt compelled to stress that I have been able to identify and verify 13 Universal Laws and the Law of Attraction is only one of the 13. Each of these Universal Laws is connected to the other 12. I have taken the time to write an article showing the connection of the Law of Attraction to the other 12. I take note that the Masters tended to stress one over the other, but I have not. I have stressed only that they are connected and are part of one great law, the Law of Creation.

Those teachers who recognize how important these Universal Laws are to us may call them by a variety of names. There is nothing wrong with any of this; however, it can cause some confusion for students and readers who are just becoming aware of their existence. I have remained focused on the 13 Universal Laws I have been able to identify and verify and have noted that many teachers down through time have also stressed the existence of 13 Universal Laws. Most of the contemporary teachers present the Laws as they understand them and stress what they think is most important. Each individual must determine this in his own life experiences.

I could debate the question of how many Universal Laws are identifiable and make my point conclusively, but establishing this is a bit like creating doctrine or dogma. The individual in the process of identifying and verifying each is the final authority for himself. It is all about our individual process and not establishing a number as doctrine.

I will be pleased to discuss any questions you may have with you personally while I am still on this mortal coil. Once gone, you have the Renford Books as a reference. The important thing for you is to answer your OWN questions by identifying and verifying the Universal Laws in YOUR life experiences.

Introduction to the Renford Books

The Introduction to the Renford Books is a sample of what you will find in more detail in the pages of The Renford Books. The Renford Books Catalog contains the basic information on the books. It will be sent on request and will be available at www.IAM-COR.org., www.iamrenford.com and at www.Daucers.com.

“You can travel to the furthest recesses of any continent, endure years of discipline, have personal time with a master teacher, learn to develop psychic capabilities and experience intense visions, but sooner or later, the Universal Laws must be consciously identified and verified from your life experiences in order for you to truly know your Self.”

People all over the world are discovering that they can study world religions and philosophy and go to great lengths to develop spiritually and still not really go far in the process of self-discovery. We would like to introduce you to the Renford Books because my effort is to demystify the process. I bring out the ultimate master in each of us. We start with the conscious process of identifying and verifying each of the Universal Laws from our life experiences. Once they are clearly understood on a conscious level, we begin the process of self-observation and let the intuitive mind, the inner being, take over.

I wrote each of the Renford Books with a particular type of reader in mind yet the subject matter is similar in that always I am dealing with the Universal Laws. I have been asked often why I am always talking about the Universal Laws. There is nothing else to talk or write about. Every thought and every action we take, no matter how wrong we might be, is based in these laws. We live move and have our being in them and it is imperative that we understand them.

In this document, now included in each book, I am giving a little history as to why I wrote them, for whom they were written and why. At the heart of our thinking when we consider reading a book the essential questions are, what is in it for me? How will I benefit by reading this book? The purpose of The Renford Books and this document is to address these questions.

The Searcher's Road Map

The Searcher's Road Map introduces the reader to the Universal Laws, the Renford Books, the Institute of Applied Metaphysics and the Universal Law Society. This book promotes no religion but seeks to show how we are alike as opposed to how we are different. The Searcher's Road Map could be called a marketing piece. Renford wanted to create a book that looked like a book, would be accepted as a book but really would serve the purpose of introducing the reader to the whole program.

The COR Document

The COR Document is the manual for the Church of Revelation. It addresses the problems that beset religious organizations and explains the mission of the group. The Church of Revelation was established to provide assistance with the personal ministries of graduates of the Institute of Applied Metaphysics. This book defines an organization that is structured so that the best interest of the individual member is held as première. Both Krisnamurti and Yung noted that as soon as an organization is formed the interest of the group supersedes that of the individual. Where this occurs in a spiritual organization a barrier is created to self-discovery. COR is based on knowledge and understanding, not on politics or tenure.

The Rules of the Game

The Rules of the Game introduces the Universal Laws in the simplest manner possible. It is not an in-depth study, but provides a basis for understanding of the Laws. Many people do not consider what Jesus or Buddha had to say as relevant to their lives today. They are not really interested in the great sages. Some are, however, interested in what Vince Lombardi, Lou Holtz and Bear Bryant had to say. These legendary philosopher coaches may never have thought in terms of Universal Principles but the quotes recorded in this book show they understood the principles about which they were speaking. The game of football is shown to be analogous to the Laws of Life, and the quotes illustrate that even on the simplest everyday matters of life, these Laws are in play. It was Renford's intention to provide as simple an explanation of each Universal Law as he possibly could and avoid any trace of religious doctrine or dogma. He wanted to create a book that could be used by sports organizations or any kind of group that supports youth development.

The House That Namuh Built

The creation of meaningful allegories, in fact, the writing of allegories, is an art form that some think is disappearing. When you find a good allegory that is expressing a Universal Principle, it can have a powerful effect on your life. The House That Namuh Built is about first a man, and then a whole people who begin on the path of Self-discovery. Again, it is about the Universal Laws, the invariant facts of life, upon which we can base our understanding for Self-discovery. This is a modern day parable, an allegory of the process of Self-discovery. Everyone in the story represents an attitude, an emotion or a Universal Law. The purpose of the book is to aid readers in the process of identifying and verifying the Universal Laws from their own life experiences.

The initial intent was to write a book for young people that would introduce them to the process of identifying and verifying the Universal Laws in their life experiences. The first draft was about 19 pages. It addressed the subject of the levels of mind and it took more than 5 years fleshing out characters and creating stories within the story to illustrate each of the Laws. Renford says he has received more feedback from readers regarding this book than any other.

In Search of Self

This is a book of prose and poetry that parallels the other books in the study of the Universal Laws. You will find that one of these Laws states that to truly understand anything, one must experience it personally. In Search of Self is the rendering of the Laws in verse. It allows readers to experience the process of identifying the Universal Laws from one's life experiences. Renford says this book is more personal to him than some of the books because it reflects his process of self-discovery. These poems were written over a long period of time and were collected into sections that pertain to each of the Universal Laws.

It was not Renford's intention to write a book of poetry but he simply put a collection together of his works over a long period of time. He has noted that he approaches poetry differently. It is as if we have to pay more attention to every line in order to grasp the real meaning.

The Laws of Material Wealth

This book was written for those who are pondering career changes or contemplating going into business for themselves. It applies Renford's understanding of the Universal Laws and his experience working with entrepreneurs, especially in startup situations. For many people developing their own business is a compelling idea. Sometimes a hobby or particular activity is all that really interests some people. The Laws of Material Wealth helps readers understand where this is coming from and why it is important for them as part of the creative process. The fundamentals based on the Universal Principles of creation are the foundation no one can ignore.

This book was written while Renford was working in venture capital. He was raising the money to raise the money. In other words, seed capital, the funds necessary to get into the position to approach venture capital, securities companies or angels. He came to the conclusion that though his clients saw everything as a money problem, the real problem more often than not was management and their unrealistic expectations. He used a number of examples from this period changing the names to protect the guilty!

The Laws of Material Wealth Workbook

The Workbook for The Laws of Material Wealth follows the chapters in the book and includes four - five exercises in each chapter dealing with a Universal Law. Sample questions one may need to ask are included. The primary purpose is to assist the reader in the process of identifying and verifying each of the Universal Laws in his own experiences and making application of this knowledge in the creation of the image held in thought. Whether a business, career or a non-profit project this is the process of creation, and above all else each of us are creating our lives.

Support for the Laws of Material Wealth

Once a student has the book, the workbook and the 4 DVDs he receives access to the 54 weeks of support material and online coaching. The support material is delivered by e-mail and the radio program on the RBR Network called The Laws of Material Wealth Personal Development Program constitutes oral coaching on each of these 54 weeks of support material. The shows are available at present in the archives of the RBR Network at www.blogtalkradio.com/renford and will be available on DVDs for those who purchase the program. The support material will be published as an additional workbook for the program.

The River of Life

This book is primarily written in verse. It is about the eternal nature of being. It picks up an entity that is between physical lives and follows him on his journey down the river of life. It addresses the various theories of life after death that is usually dumped under the general term of “reincarnation”. Christian dogma starts the clock on the nature of being with physical birth, and this essentially denies the word “eternal” except in terms of an eternal reward or punishment. This book points to the fact that the word eternal means without beginning as well as without end.

The Mysteries Revealed

This book looks at the meaning of the most controversial of the biblical books – the Book of Revelation. Many equate the word “apocalyptic” with the word “catastrophic.” “Apocalyptic” does not mean “catastrophic.” It means revelation. It is also called the Revelation of John. Dreams can seem crazy when viewed in relative consciousness, so it is important to use the language of the mind. Since there are a number of visions mentioned, The Book of Revelation should be treated and interpreted as a dream. Though most consider The Book of Revelation simply to be a book of riddles, there are those who teach a religion of fear based upon it. It is really about moving from fear based feeling to love based living. The Mysteries Revealed is a metaphysical interpretation of the Apocalypse of John – the revelation of Jesus. It is a roadmap to self-unfoldment. It is the mysteries revealed.

The Metaphysical Bible

It is a mistake to think that one can interpret all the books of the Bible in exactly the same manner. One cannot interpret all these books literally, metaphysically or with any set formula. Each book was written by the writer to a specific individual or group for a specific reason. The Father Confusors deals with physical events described by ancient witnesses from their only points of reference. The Metaphysical Bible deals with scripture that is obviously metaphorical or metaphysical in nature. Popular and familiar passages such as Isaiah 55, the Lord’s Prayer, the 23rd Psalms and others are revealed in a different light. The deeper, and with all due respect to theologians and philosophers, clearer picture of what was being said is recorded for your study. Some, if not all, of the passages that are metaphysically rendered can be found in various Renford Books, but they are all together and in an easily understandable order in this book.

Included in this book is a chapter on how we got our Bible. Many think of it as something that has always existed, but it was a collection ordered by an Emperor who was not a Christian. What should or should not be included is still a matter of conjecture with the Greek Catholics, Roman Catholics and Protestants, not to mention the Gnostics, putting forward their collection as the Bible.

Renford Revelations Volume One – Volume Five

Included in these books are blogs, articles and essays by Renford on a variety of subjects of contemporary interest. The power that can be gained by understanding of the ancient teaching of the Masters come alive with understanding of applied metaphysics. Without a practical way to understand and harmonize with the Universal Laws, the benefit is limited to the intellect or faith. The Essays are revelations that come from the process of identifying and verifying the Universal Laws from life experiences. They have been delivered on Internet radio, Internet Article Centers and included as chapters in some of the Renford Books.

The Father Confusors

This is a study of ancient scripture and the parallels that can be seen in related stories. It is in the third level of the Institute of Applied Metaphysics and builds on the lessons learned from the Universal Laws. Once the Universal Laws are understood, at least on a basic level, The Father Confusors helps differentiate between Universal Being – God and alien entities that were thought to be God or posed as God. The First Cause, the Creative Force we call Universal Being, is identified through the Divine Self-Expression, the Universal Laws. This book deals with numerous incidences described by ancient witnesses from their point of reference and what they are describing is not God nor God-like attitudes and actions. Witnesses describe an incident from their point of reference. Ancient witnesses could not include all the technological advancements of the 21st century.

The Core Teachings

This book identifies thirteen Universal Laws that were taught by the Great Masters. The emphasis is on how their teachings were alike as opposed to how they were different. It can be read in two ways. It may be read as any book from front to back in the normal way or the reader can take any one of the Universal Laws and follow the thinking of the Masters one by one. You can read what Buddha had to say about one of the Laws in the Dhammapada – what Lao Tzu said in the Tao Teh Ching, what Vedic writers said in ancient Vedic texts – what the Zen Masters said – what Jesus said and what Mohammed said. The book moves on to famous writers and teachers such as William James, Ralph Waldo Emerson, Thomas Troward, Wallace Wattles and Napoleon Hill. The last author quoted is Dr. David Hawkins PhD. The reader can get a more comprehensive picture of a Universal Law than any other way. Readers and students can see for themselves how the original teachings parallel each other. In the process of this study what has been added can be identified. To some degree, there is an introduction to the Universal Laws in virtually all of the Renford Books, but in The Core Teachings, there is a more in depth study of the Laws.

The Unity Principles

This book is a study of the writings of Charles Fillmore and Emily Cady and records what they said about the Universal Laws in comparison to what are commonly accepted as the Unity Principles. No matter how the Unity Principles are represented today, we can see in this book that Fillmore and Cady were very specific in their statements.

The 5 Unity principles, as they are explained by the ministers of Unity Church of Christianity, are really principles that any Christian could agree with. However, when we look at the specific statements of Cady and Fillmore, we find very specific definitions of each of the 13 Universal Laws that are unequivocal. These statements, unlike those put forward officially as the Unity Principles orthodox Christians would not agree with. The Principle of Absolute Unity, for instance, is clearly stated in Unity as, “There is only one power in the universe.” Orthodox Christianity says there are two warring powers battling over the souls of men, God and angelic army and the devil with his demonic forces. Duality is predominant throughout traditional Christianity.

The Universal Law Society Workbook

The ULS Workbook contains the multiple choice Lesson Questions for the books and essays that make up the first level of study for the Institute of Applied Metaphysics. The first level is called the Universal Law Society because each of the Renford Books deals with the Universal Laws. The essays have True and False Lesson Questions. This is the workbook necessary for those who want to complete the ULS and become eligible for ordination by the Church of Revelation as Minister – Teacher.

The IAM Masters Workbook

In the second level, the M. A. Program, the focus shifts to the process of manifestation and acceptance. The purpose of this level is to engender understanding of the process of creation. In fact, many of the teachers who have studied the Universal Laws call them “the Laws of Creation”.

It is obvious that masters, such as Jesus, saw that our purpose for being here is to create and be productive. We have the illustration of Jesus wilting the fig tree because it was barren. He told the parable of the talents that emphasized the need to be productive and explained what the primary enemy of the individual is, “Fear”.

The PhAM Workbook

This workbook contains essays with lesson questions and all assignments. It also includes all of the multiple choice questions for the texts in this level. This is a required purchase for one who wants to complete the third level. The material in this level is advanced information not readily available in most esoteric schools. Completion of this level entitles the graduate to teach any courses in this level as well as ordination as a Doctor – Metaphysician in the Church of Revelation.

The Author’s Workshop

This workbook is the text taught in workshops and is provided for paying students as part of the price of the workshop. It can be purchased separately but it is in outline form and much is to be gained from the explanations covering it. This is a complete guide to aspiring authors. Publishing is defined, what to expect as part of the process and what to do when you have your book is covered. The workshop is generally presented in a three hour format beginning with a clear picture of how the publishing business has evolved and how to adapt to these changes. This is important if a new author is going to be able to make informed decisions. With this knowledge it will be much more difficult for anyone to take advantage of a new author. Cost cannot be hidden if the author knows what the process is. When you know the questions to ask publishers and people who assist with publishing recognize that you want an itemized fixed cost in advance and that you intend to maintain control.

Half Enlightened Masters

The purpose of this book is to familiarize the reader with the steps to be taken in the process of self-discovery. In order to accomplish this process, it is helpful to look at ways people have tried to do this. Religion has been the main focus. The occult world is another, which includes the search for a perfect master in the popular Eastern tradition. Renford is offering his observations with regard to organizations covered in this book because he has been able to study and spend time with supporters of these schools of thought. They were not selected for critiquing purposes. Basic information is provided and readers can take the time, should they so desire, to investigate any or all that has been included.

The Literalist Conspiracy

This book gives an accurate picture uncolored by the Catholic Church story line. It reveals the facts about the first 50 years after Christ, the Ebionites under James, the brother of Jesus, in Jerusalem as well as the coming of the Gnostics. It reveals a small group of the lowest level Gnostics called Hylics who interpreted the myths with meaning written by Gnostics literally and turned them into narratives. It is about the state of Christianity through to the Nicene Council in 325. It traces the development of a new aggressive and violent religion founded by the Emperor, a non-Christian, for political purposes. This new religion was structured along the lines of the Roman military and combined with the state apparatus, created a resilient theocracy that, when the state failed, continued to develop through other states. This book contains information on existing and competing religions at the time and the role politics played in the creation of the Bible.

The Revealer

The Revealer is an in depth study of the mission of Jesus, the religious and political scene at the time of his recorded life and the very essence of his teachings. This book deals with the secrets he said he was there to reveal. He said these secrets had lain hidden from the foundations of the earth. In the same verse, Matthew 13:35, where he states this is his purpose for coming. The writer of Matthew goes on to say, “And he spoke to them in parables and without parables spoke He not.” This very clearly tells us where the secrets are to be found.

IAM-WELL

It is clear that the basic and most effective way to be healthy is to be completely healthy. We mean by this, healthy in mind, body, and spirit. Any other approach yields only temporary results. It is necessary to identify and come into harmony with the Laws of Life if one is to know true health. Medicine and the science of healing on the physical level have come a long way. Their advancements, however, have been so focused on the physical level that mind and soul have been considered only possible aids in physical health. In other words, the advances have been made without recognition of the fact that mind and spirit are a part of the equation. Scientists have proved that everything on this vibratory plane is governed by laws, but they are only aware of physical laws. We would like to suggest that you look at the question of health and the laws that govern health with a more comprehensive view including body, soul and mind. In the Renford Books, these Laws are referred to as the Universal Laws, and the author shows how they affect the natural laws with which we have become somewhat familiar. We could also refer to them as simply, The Laws of Life.

The IAM Catalog

The idea for the creation of the Institute of Applied Metaphysics developed from the suggestions and contributions of many who read the Renford Books when they were still in manuscript form. Readers and students have continued to motivate Renford, culminating in the establishment of the Institute and its Board of Regents. The Renford Books constitute Renford’s understanding on a wide range of subjects, each related to the Universal Laws. As a student of the Institute of Applied Metaphysics you will learn on three levels. The first level is a comprehensive look at the Universal Laws with the objective being to identify and verify each from your own life experiences. The second level looks at our primary purpose for being here and the process of manifesting our evolution and unfoldment. The third level ties it all together with an in depth esoteric study.

The courses, essays and lesson questions for all three levels are listed along with comprehensive information on the Institute. This catalog also provides a clear picture of the philosophy of the Institute with regard to education and educational institutions.

One only need read one of the Renford Books to recognize that they are different. With a dedicated study of these books one can break the bonds of mechanical thinking and begin the process of evolution and unfoldment. The same old fuzzily stated esoteric ideas are absent. There is a clear and direct communication of the invariant principles in a way that any serious student can understand and find a path to run on.

Original Science

Science today draws on the contributions of early giants such as Hermes Trismegistus, Pythagoras, Socrates, Aristotle and others. At the same time they made these scientific contributions they were extraordinary philosophers. There was simply not the clearly established lines we have today between philosophy and science.

Government

In this book, original laws from ancient texts such as The Laws of Maat, The Code of Hammurabi and the Ten Commandments are shown to be the core principles upon which our judicial system and systems of government are based. There were other such ancient texts, all of which the kings who brought them claimed were given to them by the gods on a mountain top. It is what all, including the Law of Moses, have in common as they all claim them to be a revelation exclusively for them by the gods to provide for the people.

This book explains how, from these basic laws, we have meandered through history and the divine right of kings to eventually arrive at constitutional law by the people and for the people.

Religions of the World

This book may not include every religious group in the world and there are many derivatives from each of the major religions. The major ones are covered using both the literalist and esoteric extremes. The Literalist side will be most interested in form, doctrine, and ritual. The esoteric side will be interested in the process of enlightenment and understanding. There will be some religions of which you will have limited knowledge. You can find information on the Internet with regard to any religion but you have to know what to look for. I think there will be some in this book you would not have known to look for.

The Contemporary Revealers

This book is a review of contemporary writers who have addressed and explained some, if not all, of the Universal Laws. This fact is not recognized by those who have written reviews of these authors and their books. It may be that they do not recognize the significance of these writings. For instance, people who write about Edgar Casey involve themselves in how accurate his readings of the future have been. They want to theorize about what he saw in political terms etc. They miss the significance of his identification and verifications of the Universal Laws. You will not hear from most Christian Ministers about the Universal Laws but Jesus himself said that he had come to reveal the secrets that had lain hidden from the foundations of the earth. He told his apostles that he had revealed the mysteries to them though they don't appear to have been astute students. This book features people who have revealed at least partially the Universal Laws.

The Language of the Mind

When we attempt to interpret a dream, especially those that are recurring, we have no hope unless we know the language being used. We think in pictures and it is motion pictures we receive. These pictures are symbols with which the inner-being is using to talk to us. If we associate the dream only with the picture or scenes related to the experience in the relative conscious state while awake, it is like trying to translate from Chinese to English using only Greek. It does not work! If we know the symbols, we know the language of the mind. Most of us are not meditating, and the only time the inner-being can talk to us is when we are asleep. If we attempt to interpret our dreams in the relative conscious language of our relative conscious lives, we have the total confusion and fear-based interpretations of those who give us literal interpretations of the Book of Revelation

Renford Revelations – Blogs, Articles and Essays

The Process

In numerous essays, classes and books, I address what I call the spiritual I.V., the necessity of identifying and verifying the Universal Laws in our life experiences. In other words, the stress is on the personal conscious recognition from our own experiences as opposed to blindly accepting tradition or faith in what others say their experiences have been. This is a process initially in conscious recognition that will eventually be taken over by the intuitive mind. It is a step toward the door to our path. If we can't find or open the door, how are we going to determine a path?

Most of the Renford Books in the first level of study at the Institute of Applied Metaphysics are designed to assist you in this process of identification and verification of the Universal Laws in your life experiences. The purpose is to key off in your mind an incident that can confirm for you a particular Universal Principle. These first level books approach the process from different angles so that should you not be able to associate a Universal Law with your experience in one area, maybe you will be able to relate it to another part of your life.

In The House that Namuh Built, you can find the story of one man's process of self-discovery, and each incident is an example for you to relate to your experiences. However, this is a modern day parable told in a simple story form that some may find difficult to relate to their own reality. For this reason, I wrote The Rules of the Game. Some people are not terribly interested in what Jesus, Buddha or Lao Tzu had to say but may be very interested in what Lou Holtz, Bear Bryant or Vince Lombardy had to say. This book is analogous to football, and all the quotes come from sports figures. These philosopher coaches may or may not have been aware of the Universal Principle they were stating, but their expression of that Law is unmistakable. Others will not read anything unrelated to their business or money. For this reason I wrote The Laws of Material Wealth. This book is about the thinking that should occur before you go into business for yourself.

I drew on my experience raising capital for new businesses for illustrations of each Universal law.

For those who love poetry, I wrote In Search of Self. In this book, I revealed in 63 poems my process of evolution and unfoldment. In whatever manner and in whatever way I could, I sought to provide ways for you to relate to the Universal Laws. I have suggested to you what I have discovered, but your dependence on my word about these Universal Laws if accepted on faith will be just as much a hindrance to your process as accepting what your preacher says without searching the scriptures to see if the things said are so.

The process, of necessity, must be yours and yours alone. It is your experiences you are studying in relation to the Universal Laws to help you consciously recognize this principle so that you can say, "I know this to be true because I have been there and done that." Once you have been able to relate each principle to an experience consciously, it becomes second nature for you. You will not be analyzing everything that happens to you in relation to the Universal Laws. The intuitive mind takes over and the inner being recognizes what is going on as a natural process.

You will never get where you want to go with this if you sit down with a list of the Universal Laws and ask yourself "What has happened to me that typifies this or that Law? What works is to review your life experiences beginning with those things that were life changing or traumatic and determine which Universal Laws or combinations of Laws were in place at the time. You cannot use the Universal Laws like some tool or "how to" formula. Once you recognize and relate a Law to an incident in your life, you can learn to come into harmony with it.

This process requires work on Self, which I have found to be the most difficult work an individual can undertake. Most people prefer to read a book, go to church or to a seminar and let someone tell them what they should do. Some want to go to a service or group meeting and feel the energy without having to think, observe or in any manner work on one's Self. The actual process requires so much mental effort that without a group or a teacher available on demand, you may simply set it aside as requiring too much effort. By using the Renford Books as your tool for the process of relating the Laws to your experiences, the task becomes simply a procedure that automatically slots in an experience as being an illustration of a principle.

Besides reading the Renford Books in the first level and answering the questions in The ULS Workbook, there is an added exercise that will facilitate your process. This exercise is also difficult because we are unaccustomed to self-observation. Once we actually start paying attention to what we are saying and doing, we become more and more self-aware. You do not have to beat yourself up for getting angry or saying something caustic. By virtue of the fact that you are observing yourself, you will simply stop doing the negative that you recognize as harmful to your process. You may catch yourself responding negatively to someone because of what was said and may respond in kind but, the fact that you recognize what you are doing is a major step in your process.

As self-observation begins to kick in, the fourth step in your process should commence. This involves three forms of meditation in conjunction with your verification work. Remedial steps can eventually be taken when self-observation has taken root. This means that negative thoughts and actions can be removed and replaced with the creative and the pure potentiality of your thinking. I will cover these forms of meditation in an article to follow.

Quote of the Month:

“A statement may be true at a high level of understanding but be incomprehensible to the average mind. Its value may therefore be corrupted when the statement is distorted by the limitations of the listener. This has been the fate of religions throughout the ages, when pronouncements originating from high levels of awareness were later misinterpreted by followers vested with authority.” Power vs Force Pg 91

Poet's Porch: From In Search of Self by Renford

Isaiah Revisited

All those who desire conscious experience for growth and understanding come to life, come to understanding. The Universal Laws are for all without regard to wealth. It is our Divine Birthright.

Knowledge, experience and understanding await you. The Laws and benefits of the Laws are for all, the Birthright of BEING – the gift of the Creator.

Why spend these precious years, while the soul may experience in the flesh, on things that do not add to our accumulation of understood experiences? Real knowledge is all we can take with us and from which we can have harmony.

Listen to the Subconscious mind. It is the voice of the soul and will provide the knowledge with real value. Listen with quite intensity for the voice within so that the purpose of your being is understood.

The Universal Laws are changeless as is the Universal Being. Evolution of the soul is an infinite promise that the door is always open.

The Laws hold the same promise for the soul today as they did in ancient days, and that they will offer to souls of a later age. Those in harmony with the Law will attract others to the degree of their desire and will. Those who are drawn to you may be unknown to you in this life or any of your other life cycles.

This will happen when we are in full harmony with the Universal Laws, the gift of Universal Being, which is our Birthright.

Go within to your Inner Being, the one which creates, when you can quiet “the busy one” and when you sleep.

Let the ego know he is not the only you and that his selfishness is the error that can block your real self-interest. Your “Self” can bond with Universal Being, and all souls, as all are part of the whole. Though, in the same design, we are but a small replica, and our creative power only a spark of Universal Being's intensity.

The working of the subconscious mind is not that of the conscious mind. One asks and the other gives; one desires, the other desires only to fulfill desires.

The conscious thoughts come to us in many ways from our experiences and cannot create without the use of the Being within. The inner man is the creator within us, in touch with the Super Conscious, which is the Creator.

The soul comes to experience in the physical, but the body does not go back. Only the soul returns with its accumulated understanding.

This gives surety to the soul that the Law is balanced and changeless; that understanding may be held and the purpose fulfilled.

In harmony, we grow and evolve to the next level, and when we come again, the lesson will be according to the harmony of the last. The harmony in life will gain momentum, so life will be a symphony.

Conscious mind conceives desires and develops the will. The Inner Being in conjunction with the subconscious delivers only when we are in harmony with the Laws.

In living, the understanding soul gives of itself and by giving, receives tenfold. The teaching is in the doing and the learning in the teaching.

Harmony between the minds creates the desired results, even to our own well-being and material wealth. What we sow is what we will reap, and the more understanding acquired, the more we will be able to manifest upon Universal Being.

Our harmony with Universal Laws and our continuous creation are the fulfillment of the Law of Divine Self-expression.

In place of discord that comes from negative thoughts, positive thoughts will grow in harmony and power. Instead of pain, there will be exultation.

When we have complete understanding, knowing in our hearts, souls and minds, that we are one with the Creator, we will return to the Father fully present within us.

In that time, the whole of the universe will be in harmony with us.

Where discord and disharmony have prevailed in our lives, there will be harmony, peace and happiness. Whatever we do will prosper, and compatibility with the Father will be our inheritance.

We testify to the Laws and Universal Being by our expression, and by our understanding the soul grows. By the fruits of our lives will all souls know the eternal path is the way within.

This alone is the eternal sign and the fulfillment of the promise of the Creator since duality was conceived by man.

Some Positive Thoughts About Ignorance

"Ignorance is bliss."

"What you don't know can't hurt you." Those "in the know" may sometimes envy blissful folks who somehow get along without the burden of knowing.

Every bit of insight or knowledge we gain makes us realize our greater ignorance...how much we don't know.

That said, we look at our ignorance with a calm eye, realizing that there's unlimited potential in it. Ignorance is the virgin state that constitutes the beginning of all awareness and knowledge.

I recall all those years when I sat silently in classrooms, afraid that if I asked questions it would reveal my ignorance. At the time it seemed that the classroom was designed to humiliate me. I just didn't realize that the purpose of a classroom is to allow ignorance to be replaced by clarity.

There is no shame in ignorance for it is the starting line in an endless race for learning, expertise, and mastery. Ignorance is a nothingness, a void that is constantly being filled with sensory perceptions that are modified by accumulating reactions, responses, considerations, and conclusions that comprise experience and learning.

Meister Eckhart is always an inspiration to me. Back in the 1300s his analytical mind so probed Christianity's intricate mystical relationship to Creation that it resulted in Pope John XXII leveling charges of heresy against him because his thinking "pushed the inside of the envelope" far beyond the church's demand of belief in "salvation by crucifixion".

As rich as Eckhart's belief system was, he came to believe that we must "let go" of all our prized knowledge and empty ourselves--making ourselves empty vessels--to permit Spirit's fullness to enrich us with Its truth. "Let go, and let God" was his persistent theme.

And isn't this what we do as we live and move? When we are open and receptive to the unlimited, our present store of knowledge becomes as a darksome nothingness compared to the light and infinite awareness that lies ahead.

THE RENFORD AFFIRMATIONS

I know that anything I can conceive and believe I can achieve. Everyday ideas are coming to me. Every day I gain more confidence because I believe in myself. God dwells in me, and I can access God Power by recognizing my innate powers.

I know that there are certain Universal Principles or Laws upon which all laws, including the laws of physics, rest. I am persistent in my identification of these Laws in my life. I am using my innate powers to come into harmony with these Laws of life. I know that these Laws are the Divine Self-Expression and that through understanding them in my life experiences, I can BE STILL AND KNOW GOD.

I see all problems as challenges that simply require a learning process. I love them because they exist in Divine Love for my benefit. I understand that proper perspective is necessary to begin any work and I'm daily developing the capability to view my life in proper perspective.

The essence of God is in me and I am pure potentiality. Every thought I have creates. I am aware that I can create destructively as easily as I can create constructively; therefore, my every thought is observed as if I were outside looking in. Negative and fearful thoughts are immediately apprehended and brought into the light from the dark corners and hidden caverns of my mind. In their place, creative and constructive thoughts are building the edifice of self-knowledge and understanding, which is my birthright.

I know that there are no limits upon the abundance that is available to me, except those that I place upon myself. I am releasing all thoughts that restrict or limit me. I am attracting all the skills, people and materials that I need to fulfill my primary purpose. These assets and attributes are daily being placed on the infrastructure that I have created in thought. I am manifesting what I have imaged in thought.

I know that I am not alone but part of the absolute unity of all. I know that every action has a reaction. I know that all is connected; therefore, there are always consequences of my thoughts, attitudes and actions. I observe this and daily create an ever-expanding positive force.

I am giving of myself every day in every way. I share my wealth, time and knowledge, and the cosmos rewards me in multiples of my giving. It is inevitable that I receive when I give, because this is an expression of a Universal Law.

I know that no matter what I give or receive, there is only one essential ingredient, and this ingredient is the makeup of God. IT IS LOVE. Every time I share my knowledge, wealth or time, I am giving packets of LOVE—Packets of God. Love is all that I have been given, and it is all that I can give. I give love freely and daily.

I know where I am, who and what I am, and what I am capable of. I know that my capacity for energetic activity, creative thought and love is endless and that my energy supplier, Universal Being, is infinite. I take responsibility for what I have and will create. I know that what I create in thought, and give the power of emotion to, will be manifested. I AM IN EVERY WAY CREATING MY LIFE! ~ ~ ~

The RBR Hosts program has developed into a fraternity of teachers, healers, creators and service oriented personalities. We have formerly been limited to two hours per day broadcast time with 12 shows per week. Of course this limited the number of Hosts, the genres and the audience we could reach. We think that those who are producing these shows and working to provide information and services to listeners worldwide are dedicated and the potential for an expanded network is present. This is a diverse group and each host has appeal for a segment of the listener base and may create their own listener base. While we may have differences in belief systems, skills and approaches to the public the core intent is to serve. We have a variety of backgrounds but as hosts we all want the same thing. We want successful shows with a good audience base and to share what we have come to know by interviewing service oriented guests.

Contact iamrenford@gmail.com for information regarding your participation in the Hosts Association. We will forward the Hosts Association Package.

Benefits of Spiritual Response Therapy

Clearing the subconscious mind with SRT helps one to become aware of working with more than the subconscious. As negative patterns are cleared, an important channel of communication begins to open, a connection with the High-Self is made. Guidance and help are constantly given to us from the spiritual realm, however we are not always aware of it. As a Spiritual Response Therapy Practitioner, I have noticed the benefits that clients receive when there is clearance of programs/blocks. They report feeling better and having a more positive outlook on their life.

Everyone has unlimited potential and should be aware of who they are and what they can do in this lifetime. Dr. Ross is on a mission to inform, educate and help others realize their potential and understand the possibilities that are available to them.

THE KVRG RADIO NETWORK GERMANY TERMS AND CONDITIONS

The KVRG Radio Network Germany has 200 slots available for podcasts to be aired, with no time limit on each slot.

The radio operates 24 hours a day, allowing for podcasts to be aired at any time within the day.

The duration of each podcast determines how many podcasts can be aired in one day, with an estimated 1-hour show resulting in a complete rotation of 200 slots in 8 days.

To avoid replaying content and maintaining listener interest, at least 12 different artists are required to provide podcasts, with a preference for 24 unique podcasts per day.

The radio network does not operate as a jukebox where listeners can select content, rather podcasters need to send their content via cloud to the radio network.

The quality of recordings is a priority, and podcasts must be submitted to the radio network at least 2 days before the intended airing date. Upon approval, podcasters are required to make a payment via

PayPal to eleonoradoermann@gail.com, who serves as the wife and accountant of Robert Doermann, the CEO and owner of The KVRG Radio Network Germany.

Payment made via PayPal should be referenced as a "Donation for Flummi the cat to pay for his hospital bill".

The radio network encourages podcasters to create a digital business card on <https://www.canva.com/> for promotional purposes, and to provide a picture of themselves and a QR code for their webpage.

The KVRG Radio Network Germany has a zero-tolerance policy towards profanity, racism, or any form of offensive content.
