Feature : Lawrence J. King

Lawrence King is a non-fiction writer and an internationally known and locally respected 10 X Published Author. He is also an honorably discharged U.S. Army veteran and former Tae Kwon Do Martial Arts instructor.

Mr. King taught Old School Tiger Style Korean Karate to the men and women of the U.S. NATO Armed Forces in Europe as well as teaching private lessons for civilians at his Blue Cottage / Korean Karate / Tae Kwon Do Way of the Feet and Hands Combat Martial Arts School of Self-Defense in Europe.

Mr. King and his students competed in tournament competitions all over Europe at various Open Karate, Tae Kwon Do, and Kung Fu Martial Arts Championships. After having been quite successful in tournament competition he was ask to represent Team U.S.A at the World Karate Championships in Groningen Holland. Mr. King and his students ended up being photo spot-lighted in the 1991 German Karate Magazine for having won 11 trophies at the 3rd Annual Martial Arts Championships in Karlsruhe Germany.

Mr. King is the owner of three businesses, a Jewelry Company, a Seasonal Greeting Card Company, and Boone Dog Productions 2020, an on-line home shopping network business. He is a motivational speaker as well.

Mr. King is also the host of a popular nationwide and worldwide radio podcast called BOOK TALK. His Book Talk Radio Show is a live show, one on one interviews with established published authors, musicians, and people with diverse interests from the local, regional, national, and International scene. He attributes his success to countless hours of hard work and a Never Quit, Never Give Up mindset.

www.blogtalkradio.com/lawrence-j-king

Mr. King comes from the School of Hard Knocks, It's been 5 Steps forward and 7 Steps backward, while dealing with a life filled with major trials and tribulations. He believes that no matter what life deals you or you deal yourself in life, you can turn your life around and still become successful as long as you apply enormous amounts of focus, utilize self-discipline, will power, intestinal fortitude and have the proper mind set.

Mr. King knows all too well what the words overcoming adversity mean based upon his own unfortunate personal experiences in life. Once upon a time, long, long ago, he took flight to avoid local prosecution. He ended up being a fugitive from justice. He managed to elude local, state, and national law enforcement for two plus years before he was arrested. Once he was handcuffed and placed into the back of a police car he began, in his words a road-trip to Hell. It stretched from the east coast to the west coast.

Mr. King was transported from North Carolina via a small mini-van full of prisoners from all over the country. At night Mr. King and the other prisoners were off loaded from the minivan and placed into jail cells, He says that he spent the night in 13 different jails until finally arriving in Colorado. He was brought before the judge and then sentenced to probation, anger management classes and weekly therapy. He had to pay all court costs and fees. Obviously, his punishment was in the transportation.

Larry's 8th book, called Trials and Tribulation was banned by the justice system. He was ordered to cease selling this book and was ordered to have his publishing company stop any and all further reproduction of this particular book. We have no details as to what the book contained.

Lawrence J. King grew up without a father and dealt with other problematic situations and circumstances in his life including drug problems. He has been homeless 3 times, domestic violence issues 3 times, divorce 2 times, loss of gainful employment several times, isolation and depression, discrimination issues, plus being terminated from his biker club! Mr. King has been arrested and put in jail 6 times. He has been on probation 2 times, and had a probation revocation due to his deliberate insolence. This revocation was based upon his not adhering to a No Contact Order.

Mr. King decided to defy his Probation Officer and got married to the woman with whom he was not supposed to be in contact. He paid no attention to the No Contact Order or to the Probation Officers Rules and so was arrested again. He was then ordered to appear before the judge and was sentenced to the Department of Corrections for five years. To add insult to injury his 2nd wife divorced him while he was in prison and after his prison sentence was completed, he had to deal with major discrimination issues which made it almost impossible for him to find gainful employment.

Mr. King has suffered from loss of loved ones, both Mother and Father dying of Cancer and losing his 2 children after a divorce as they remained in Europe with their mother. He felt the need to relocate to America to begin a new chapter in this game called life. He said it was necessary even though it mean losing everything in his life that ever meant anything to him.

Mr. King's Non-Fiction books were written to benefit people from all walks of life, especially those with a less than perfect past. Flaws: I got 'em, Laws: I broke 'em, Dues: I paid 'em, Scars: I bare'em, Lessons: I for sure learned 'em.

Mr. King wants to inspire people. He said, "I want someone to look at me and say because of you I didn't give up." Mr. King also said, "Success is my only choice because failure is not an option."

NEVER QUIT, NEVER GIVE UP.

The Ego

The occidental mind often has a hard time working with some words used by an Indian swami. Many Indian gurus talk about the "ego" being the enemy of enlightenment. By the time teachers in the West get through using the word, it sounds like something dirty off the street. It is an enemy to be locked-up, destroyed and banished. It is, therefore, a word that we must study and understand.

Self-construction, self-identity, self-perspective or self-structure all seem to be the generally accepted definitions of the word. If we go to the dictionaries and the luminaries, ego is described as: The view one has of oneself, one's self-image, self-esteem, self-worth, self-loathing or the ideal self. Paramahansa Yoganda called his program of enlightenment Self-Realization. Many, including myself, refer to the objective being Self-discovery or Self-awareness. The fact is, ego actually means what is seen and expressed as the self.

Some gurus on the Internet specialize in what they call the “death of the ego” and suggest there are two ways of experiencing it; the first way is with drugs such as Ayahuasca using DMT, (dimethyltryptamine), LSD, Ketamine, psilocybin or magic mushrooms.

The second way involves meditation and forms of mental and spiritual disciplines that may take many years of concentrated effort. It is not as fast as drugs, but you don’t have to worry about drawbacks such as extreme nausea, paranoia, psychosis, depression, anxiety, possible mental disorders and even death.

These Internet gurus say that there are three steps:

- 1) Dissolution – Whether thought meditation or drugs, it can be destabilizing as you may feel you are losing your grip on reality.
- 2) Ego loss – Complete loss of identity because there is no self-image to consciously identify with. The possible positive outcome is a sense of unity with all reality. In other words, it can be euphoric or deeply disturbing.
- 3) Return to everyday life – Might have a new perspective with side effects.

I say there is another way that involves a conscious process. You don’t have to be drugged or mesmerized. It is a four step process that I call “the Four Pillars”: Identification, Verification, Observation and Meditation.

The first three steps are the three pillars and conscious actions on your part and then, eventually, the intuitive aspect comes into the picture in the fourth pillar. We consciously identify and verify each of the thirteen Universal Laws in our life experiences. At the same time we are observing ourselves and others.

The fourth pillar is meditation and that can take us to the intuitive level. When we look at just three of the thirteen Universal Laws that we identify and verify in our life experiences, the process leads us to proper perspective. We observe the ego and we rise above any identification or battle with it.

We allow it no control and we are not moved to action by it. We are simply aware of it. This is proper perspective.

- 1) The Universal Law of Being – An individual who recognizes that there is more to him than just a body, a piece of complicated electromagnetic equipment that operates, more or less, mechanically, has made the first important step. He will break the chains of being mechanical by observing himself and those natural laws that captivate him. He will recognize that he is a composite of mind, body and spirit. He is not a spirit with a body or a physical being with a spirit. He will recognize that he has certain innate qualities that he can expand and that are a result of the indwelling of God in man.
- 2) The Universal Law of Proper Perspective – He will know where he is and where he is going. He will have risen above his self-image and the concept of an anthropomorphic God out there in space somewhere. He will know God is within him. He will be more, in one sense, than most people ever become because he will know that he is pure potential. He will know exactly what he wants and what is important. He will have a sense of what his purpose in life is. His attitude will be such that there will be no room for negative or destructive thoughts. He is aware of the ego but allows no interference from it.
- 3) The Universal Law of Righteous Self-interest – He will know that he cannot cast his pearls before swine. In other words, his vision is held up always for him to keep in focus. He will know that he cannot be selfish but that his Self-discovery is his primary purpose. This purpose cannot be realized without giving of himself but he will know that he cannot allow others' negative thoughts to diminish that vision or deter him from its fulfillment. His purpose is to learn and to benefit those he comes in contact with. It is not a selfish endeavor because it is an expression of his love of life and Being as a Whole.

In summary, we do not identify the ego as something that amounts to an enemy. We do not look at the ego as something evil. When we label the ego as evil, we have bought into the concept of duality, that the world is a giant battle between good and evil forces. God, with his angelic host, is engaged in a battle with the devil and his demonic forces for the hearts and minds of human beings is a Zoroastrian concept that has made its way into Judaism, Christianity and Islam. This is saying that there are two opposing forces of almost equal status! We know from the Book of Revelation that the devil (beast) is easily thrown into the abyss. What is an abyss? It is a bottomless pit with no basis in fact. The only power it has is the power we give it.

If God is omnipresent, where could the devil be? If God is omnipotent, how could any entity compete? If God is omniscient, what would be the point of attack by the devil? There is only one power in the Universe, and according to the ancient text called the Bible, we live, move and have our being in God. He is in us, and we are in him. This is the Universal Law of Absolute Unity.

The fact is, what the religious teachers call the devil is Fear. Fear is that insidious thing that seeps into our very soul and is the cause of all our failures and pain. Fear breeds in ignorance. Fear is the opposite of Love. Hate is only a by-product of Fear. Again, the only power Fear, or the devil, has is the power we give it. The logic of any argument for duality is non-existent yet most of the major religions exercise this Fear as a weapon to keep their members in line. “Do as we say or risk the fires of hell for an eternity.” The fact is, the ego cannot be evil, but it can be afraid! This being the case, the question remains, what exactly is the ego?

Karl Jung described the situation as follows: The Id, which is the subconscious mind, is the largely independent and self-governing element of the mind. The conscious ego is our self-image, or how we see ourselves. The super ego is that picture we have of ourselves in grandiose perfection. In fact, Jung describes the ego as the mediator between the two extremes of the Id and the super ego.

So, what are the swamis and spiritual leaders down through time talking about when they refer to the difficulties of dealing with the ego? Could they be talking about the “death of the ego” as represented by some Internet teachers? I think not! Without the ego (self-image) how can one even reach the point of searching for enlightenment? Without an image of self that one can live with, one has nothing to work with. This image is a tool in the process.

What is in play here is the Universal Law of Proper Perspective. It is not a matter of destroying the ego. It is a matter of rising above it. It is in recognizing what it is, accepting that it is there but allowing no interference from it. This is the death of the ego as a controlling factor in our lives.

Quote of the Month:

“On examination we will see that power arises from meaning. It has to do with motive and it has to do with principle. Power is always associated with that which supports the significance of life itself. It appeals to that in human nature which we call noble, in contrast to force, which appeals to that which we call crass. Power appeals to that which uplifts and dignifies – enobles. Force must always be justified, whereas power requires no justification. Force is associated with the partial, power with the whole.” Power vs Force Pg. 108 David R. Hawkins M.D., Ph.D.

Poet's Porch

Primary Purpose

It is amazing how hard it is for us to determine what we want.
We think that we know, but often very little thought is given.
Instead, we emotionally react to events, and tend to rave and rant.
We see life as a game of chance; by outside forces to be driven.

We don't consider we have a primary purpose for being here.
Like a surfer, we ride life's waves wherever they may take us.
Common, everyday events rule our lives, but we hold them dear.
We rarely accept responsibility for them, what to do next is our focus.

The knowledge lost is that we are creators of our own reality;
The power we possess is dormant, an unused and sleeping yet,
We see adversity as punishment from God and inhibit our ability.
We view life through a material prism, a single or colored facet.

If we could only see purpose, the overall scheme of things,
Then it could all have meaning. There could be a sense of harmony.
We could find the peace that knowing primary purpose brings,
Begin the process of creation, and know our true destiny.
Once we know what we are meant to be, what we're here to do,
It is only a matter of holding this purpose above all the others.
It is not selfish to hold to a purpose as primary if our course is true.

Such a sacred duty does not preclude our helping another.

We must know that no person or thing can be allowed between.
No one can override what we must do or has the right to do harm.
Our purpose can't be realized where selfishness is seen or unseen.
Giving is the process and in fulfillment there is no cause for alarm.

It is of Righteous Self-interest that I write these few words. Sacrifice of primary purpose for others is an abnegation of life, But so is the willful grasping for temporary material rewards. Selfishness is about gain at another's expense, a disease that is rife.

Righteous Self-interest holds that we have an overriding purpose, Not that we have a right to inflict pain or take at another's expense. It requires our giving in order to receive. It is our Divine Bonus – The process by which we give as we received, our love we dispense.

No matter what constructive action we take, it can never be too much. Of our wealth, our time and ourselves, all come back and much more. It is a fraction of what we've been given by God's Divine Touch. We can't imagine from our giving what the Creator has in store.

Introduction to the Renford Books

The Introduction to the Renford Books is a sample of what you will find in more detail in the pages of The Renford Books. The Renford Books Catalog contains the basic information on the books. It will be sent on request and will be available at www.IAM-COR.org, www.iamrenford.com and at www.Daucers.com.

“You can travel to the furthest recesses of any continent, endure years of discipline, have personal time with a master teacher, learn to develop psychic capabilities and experience intense visions; but sooner or later, the Universal Laws must be consciously identified and verified from your life experiences in order for you to truly know your Self.”

People all over the world are discovering that they can study world religions and philosophy and go to great lengths to develop spiritually and still not really go far in the process of self-discovery. We would like to introduce you to the Renford Books because my effort is to demystify the process. I bring out the ultimate master in each of us. We start with the conscious process of identifying and verifying each of the Universal Laws from our life experiences. Once they are clearly understood on a conscious level, we begin the process of self-observation and let the intuitive mind, the inner being, take over.

I wrote each of the Renford Books with a particular type of reader in mind yet the subject matter is similar in that always I am dealing with the Universal Laws. I have been asked often why I am always talking about the Universal Laws. There is nothing else to talk or write about. Every thought and every action we take, no matter how wrong we might be, is based in these laws. We live move and have our being in them and it is imperative that we understand them.

In this document, now included in each book, I am giving a little history as to why I wrote them, for whom they were written and why. At the heart of our thinking when we consider reading a book the essential questions are, what is in it for me? How will I benefit by reading this book? The purpose of The Renford Books and this document is to address these questions.

The Searcher's Road Map

The Searcher's Road Map introduces the reader to the Universal Laws, the Renford Books, the Institute of Applied Metaphysics and the Universal Law Society. This book promotes no religion but seeks to show how we are alike as opposed to how we are different. The Searcher's Road Map could be called a marketing piece. Renford wanted to create a book that looked like a book, would be accepted as a book but really would serve the purpose of introducing the reader to the whole program.

The COR Document

The COR Document is the manual for the Church of Revelation. It addresses the problems that beset religious organizations and explains the mission of the group. The Church of Revelation was established to provide assistance with the personal ministries of graduates of the Institute of Applied Metaphysics. This book defines an organization that is structured so that the best interest of the individual member is held as première. Both Krishnamurti and Yung noted that as soon as an organization is formed, the interest of the group supersedes that of the individual. Where this occurs in a spiritual organization a barrier is created to self-discovery. COR is based on knowledge and understanding, not on politics or tenure.

The Rules of the Game

The Rules of the Game introduces the Universal Laws in the simplest manner possible. It is not an in-depth study, but provides a basis for understanding of the Laws. Many people do not consider what Jesus or Buddha had to say as relevant to their lives today. They are not really interested in the great sages. Some are, however, interested in what Vince Lombardi, Lou Holtz and Bear Bryant had to say. These legendary philosopher coaches may never have thought in terms of Universal Principles but the quotes recorded in this book show they understood the principles about which they were speaking. The game of football is shown to be analogous to the Laws of Life, and the quotes illustrate that even on the simplest everyday matters of life, these Laws are in play. It was Renford's intention to provide as simple an explanation of each Universal Law as he possibly could and avoid any trace of religious doctrine or dogma. He wanted to create a book that could be used by sports organizations or any kind of group that supports youth development.

The House That Namuh Built

The creation of meaningful allegories, in fact, the writing of allegories, is an art form that some think is disappearing. When you find a good allegory that is expressing a Universal Principle, it can have a powerful effect on your life. The House That Namuh Built is about first a man, and then a whole people who begin on the path of Self-discovery. Again, it is about the Universal Laws, the invariant facts of life, upon which we can base our understanding for Self-discovery. This is a modern day parable, an allegory of the process of Self-discovery. Everyone in the story represents an attitude, an emotion or a Universal Law. The purpose of the book is to aid readers in the process of identifying and verifying the Universal Laws from their own life experiences.

The initial intent was to write a book for young people that would introduce them to the process of identifying and verifying the Universal Laws in their life experiences. The first draft was about 19 pages. It addressed the subject of the levels of mind and it took more than 5 years fleshing out characters and creating stories within the story to illustrate each of the Laws. Renford says he has received more feedback from readers regarding this book than any other.

In Search of Self

This is a book of prose and poetry that parallels the other books in the study of the Universal Laws. You will find that one of these Laws states that to truly understand anything, one must experience it personally. In Search of Self is the rendering of the Laws in verse. It allows readers to experience the process of identifying the Universal Laws from one's life experiences. Renford says this book is more personal to him than some of the books because it reflects his process of self-discovery. These poems were written over a long period of time and were collected into sections that pertain to each of the Universal Laws.

It was not Renford's intention to write a book of poetry but he simply put a collection together of his works over a long period of time. He has noted that he approaches poetry differently. It is as if we have to pay more attention to every line in order to grasp the real meaning.

The Laws of Material Wealth

This book was written for those who are pondering career changes or contemplating going into business for themselves. It applies Renford's understanding of the Universal Laws and his experience working with entrepreneurs, especially in startup situations. For many people developing their own business is a compelling idea. Sometimes a hobby or particular activity is all that really interests some people. The Laws of Material Wealth helps readers understand where this is coming from and why it is important for them as part of the creative process. The fundamentals based on the Universal Principles of creation are the foundation no one can ignore.

This book was written while Renford was working in venture capital. He was raising the money to raise the money. In other words, seed capital, the funds necessary to get into the position to approach venture capital, securities companies or angels. He came to the conclusion that, although his clients saw everything as a money problem, the real problem, more often than not, was management and their unrealistic expectations. He used a number of examples from this period changing the names to protect the guilty!

The Laws of Material Wealth Workbook

The Workbook for The Laws of Material Wealth follows the chapters in the book and includes four - five exercises in each chapter dealing with a Universal Law. Sample questions one may need to ask are included. The primary purpose is to assist the reader in the process of identifying and verifying each of the Universal Laws in his own experiences and making application of this knowledge in the creation of the image held in thought. Whether a business, career or a non-profit project this is the process of creation, and above all else each of us are creating our lives.

Support for the Laws of Material Wealth

Once a student has the book, the workbook and the 4 DVDs he receives access to the 54 weeks of support material and online coaching. The support material is delivered by e-mail and the radio program on the RBR Network called The Laws of Material Wealth Personal Development Program constitutes oral coaching on each of these 54 weeks of support material. The shows are available at present in the archives of the RBR Network at www.blogtalkradio.com/renford and will be available on DVDs for those who purchase the program. The support material will be published as an additional workbook for the program.

The River of Life

This book is primarily written in verse. It is about the eternal nature of being. It picks up an entity that is between physical lives and follows him on his journey down the river of life. It addresses the various theories of life after death that is usually dumped under the general term of “reincarnation.” Christian dogma starts the clock on the nature of being with physical birth, and this essentially denies the word “eternal” except in terms of an eternal reward or punishment. This book points to the fact that the word eternal means without beginning as well as without end.

The Mysteries Revealed

This book looks at the meaning of the most controversial of the biblical books – the Book of Revelation. Many equate the word “apocalyptic” with the word “catastrophic.” “Apocalyptic” does not mean “catastrophic.” It means revelation. It is also called the Revelation of John. Dreams can seem crazy when viewed in relative consciousness, so it is important to use the language of the mind. Since there are a number of visions mentioned, The Book of Revelation should be treated and interpreted as a dream. Though most consider The Book of Revelation simply to be a book of riddles, there are those who teach a religion of fear based upon it. It is really about moving from fear based feeling to love based living. The Mysteries Revealed is a metaphysical interpretation of the Apocalypse of John – the revelation of Jesus. It is a roadmap to self-unfoldment. It is the mysteries revealed.

The Metaphysical Bible

It is a mistake to think that one can interpret all the books of the Bible in exactly the same manner. One cannot interpret all these books literally, metaphysically or with any set formula. Each book was written by the writer to a specific individual or group for a specific reason. The Father Confusers deals with physical events described by ancient witnesses from their only points of reference. The Metaphysical Bible deals with scripture that is obviously metaphorical or metaphysical in nature. Popular and familiar passages such as Isaiah 55, the Lord’s Prayer, the 23rd Psalms and others are revealed in a different light. The deeper, and with all due respect to theologians and philosophers, clearer picture of what was being said is recorded for your study. Some, if not all, of the passages that are metaphysically rendered can be found in various Renford Books, but they are all together and in an easily understandable order in this book.

Included in this book is a chapter on how we got our Bible. Many think of it as something that has always existed but it was a collection ordered by an Emperor who was himself not a Christian. What should or should not be included is still a matter of conjecture with the Greek Catholics, Roman Catholics and Protestants, not to mention the Gnostics, putting forward their collection as the Bible.

Renford Revelations Volume One – Volume Four

Included in these books are blogs, articles and essays by Renford on a variety of subjects of contemporary interest. The power that can be gained by understanding of the ancient teaching of the Masters come alive with understanding of applied metaphysics. Without a practical way to understand and harmonize with the Universal Laws, the benefit is limited to the intellect or faith. The Essays are revelations that come from the process of identifying and verifying the Universal Laws from life experiences. They have been delivered on Internet radio, Internet Article Centers and included as chapters in some of the Renford Books.

The Father Confusors

This is a study of ancient scripture and the parallels that can be seen in related stories. It is in the third level of the Institute of Applied Metaphysics and builds on the lessons learned from the Universal Laws. Once the Universal Laws are understood, at least on a basic level, The Father Confusors helps differentiate between Universal Being – God and alien entities that were thought to be God or posed as God. The First Cause, the Creative Force we call Universal Being, is identified through the Divine Self-Expression, the Universal Laws. This book deals with numerous incidences described by ancient witnesses from their point of reference and what they are describing is not God nor God-like attitudes and actions. Witnesses describe an incident from their point of reference. Ancient witnesses could not include all the technological advancements of the 21st century.

The Core Teachings

This book identifies thirteen Universal Laws that were taught by the Great Masters. The emphasis is on how their teachings were alike as opposed to how they were different. It can be read in two ways. It may be read as any book from front to back in the normal way or the reader can take any one of the Universal Laws and follow the thinking of the Masters one by one. You can read what Buddha had to say about one of the Laws in the Dhammapada – what Lao Tzu said in the Tao Teh Ching, what Vedic writers said in ancient Vedic texts – what the Zen Masters said – what Jesus said and what Mohammed said. The book moves on to famous writers and teachers such as William James, Ralph Waldo Emerson, Thomas Troward, Wallace Wattles and Napoleon Hill. The last author quoted is Dr. David Hawkins PhD. The reader can get a more comprehensive picture of a Universal Law than any other way. Readers and students can see for themselves how the original teachings parallel each other. In the process of this study what has been added can be identified. To some degree, there is an introduction to the Universal Laws in virtually all of the Renford Books, but in The Core Teachings, there is a more in depth study of the Laws.

The Unity Principles

This book is a study of the writings of Charles Fillmore and Emily Cady and records what they said about the Universal Laws in comparison to what are commonly accepted as the Unity Principles. No matter how the Unity Principles are represented today, we can see in this book that Fillmore and Cady were very specific in their statements.

The 5 Unity principles as they are explained by the ministers of Unity Church of Christianity are really principles that any Christian could agree with. However, when we look at the specific statements of Cady and Fillmore we find very specific definitions of each of the 13 Universal Laws that are unequivocal. These statements, unlike those put forward officially as the Unity Principles orthodox Christians would not agree with. The Principle of Absolute Unity, for instance, is clearly stated in Unity as, “There is only one power in the universe.” Orthodox Christianity says there are two warring powers battling over the souls of men, God and angelic army and the devil with his demonic forces. Duality is predominant throughout traditional Christianity.

The Universal Law Society Workbook

The ULS Workbook contains the multiple choice Lesson Questions for the books and essays that make up the first level of study for the Institute of Applied Metaphysics. The first level is called the Universal Law Society because each of the Renford Books deals with the Universal Laws. The essays have True and False Lesson Questions. This is the workbook necessary for those who want to complete the ULS and become eligible for ordination by the Church of Revelation as Minister – Teacher.

The IAM Masters Workbook

In the second level, the M. A. Program, the focus shifts to the process of manifestation and acceptance. The purpose of this level is to engender understanding of the process of creation. In fact many of the teachers who have studied the Universal Laws call them “the Laws of Creation”.

It is obvious that masters, such as Jesus, saw our purpose for being here to create and be productive. We have the illustration of Jesus wilting the fig tree because it was barren. He told the parable of the talents which emphasized the need to be productive and explained what the primary enemy of the individual is, “Fear”.

The PhAM Workbook

This workbook contains essays with lesson questions and all assignments. It also includes all of the multiple choice questions for the texts in this level. This is a required purchase for one who wants to complete the third level. The material in this level is advanced information not readily available in most esoteric schools. Completion of this level entitles the graduate to teach any courses in this level as well as ordination as a Doctor – Metaphysician in the Church of Revelation.

The Author’s Workshop

This workbook is the text taught in workshops and is provided for paying students as part of the price of the workshop. It can be purchased separately but it is in outline form and much is to be gained from the explanations covering it. This is a complete guide to aspiring authors. Publishing is defined, what to expect as part of the process and what to do when your book is covered. The workshop is generally presented in a three hour format beginning with a clear picture of how the publishing business has evolved and how to adapt to these changes. This is important if a new author is going to be able to make informed decisions. With this knowledge it will be much more difficult for anyone to take advantage of a new author. Cost cannot be hidden if the author knows what the process is. When you know the questions to ask publishers and people who assist with publishing recognize that you want an itemized fixed cost in advance and that you intend to maintain control.

Half Enlightened Masters

The purpose of this book is to familiarize the reader with the steps to be taken in the process of self-discovery. In order to accomplish this process it is helpful to look at ways people have tried to do this. Religion has been the main focus. The occult world is another, which includes the search for a perfect master in the popular Eastern tradition. Renford is offering his observations with regard to organizations covered in this book because he has been able to study and spend time with supporters of these schools of thought. They were not selected for critiquing purposes. Basic information is provided and readers can take the time, should they so desire, to investigate any or all that has been included.

The Literalist Conspiracy

This book gives an accurate picture uncolored by the Catholic Church story line. It reveals the facts about the first 50 years after Christ, the Ebionites under James the brother of Jesus in Jerusalem as well as the coming of the Gnostics. It reveals a small group of the lowest level Gnostics, called Hylics who interpreted the myths with meaning written by Gnostics literally and turned them into narratives. It is about the state of Christianity through to the Nicene Council in 325. It traces the development of a new aggressive and violent religion founded by the Emperor, a non-Christian, for political purposes. This new religion was structured along the lines of the Roman Military, and combined with the state apparatus, created a resilient theocracy that when the state failed continued to develop through other states. This book contains information on existing and competing religions at the time and the role politics played in the creation of the Bible.

The Revealer

The Revealer is an in depth study of the mission of Jesus, the religious and political scene at the time of his recorded life and the very essence of his teachings. This book deals with the secrets he said he was there to reveal. He said these secrets had lain hidden from the foundations of the earth. In the same verse, Matthew 13:35, where he sates this is his purpose for coming. The writer of Matthew goes on to say, “And he spoke to them in parables and without parables spoke he not.” This very clearly tells us where the secrets are to be found.

IAM-WELL

It is clear that the basic and most effective way to be healthy is to be completely healthy. We mean by this, healthy in mind, body, and spirit. Any other approach yields only temporary results. It is necessary to identify and come into harmony with the Laws of Life if one is to know true health. Medicine and the science of healing on the physical level have come a long way. Its advancements, however, have been so focused on the physical level that mind and soul have been considered only possible aids in physical health. In other words, the advances have been made without recognition of the fact that mind and spirit are a part of the equation. Scientists have proved that everything on this vibratory plane is governed by laws, but they are only aware of physical laws. We would like to suggest that you look at the question of health and the laws that govern health with a more comprehensive view including body soul and mind. In the Renford Books these Laws are referred to as the Universal Laws and the author shows how they affect the natural laws with which we have become somewhat familiar. We could also refer to them as simply, The Laws of Life.

The IAM Catalog

The idea for the creation of the Institute of Applied Metaphysics developed from the suggestions and contributions of many who read the Renford Books when they were still in manuscript form. Readers and students have continued to motivate Renford culminating in the establishment of the Institute and its Board of Regents. The Renford Books constitute Renford's understanding on a wide range of subjects, each related to the Universal Laws. As a student of the Institute of Applied Metaphysics you will learn on three levels. The first level is a comprehensive look at the Universal Laws with the objective being to identify and verify each from your own life experiences. The second level looks at our primary purpose for being here and the process of manifesting our evolution and unfoldment. The third level ties it all together with an in depth esoteric study.

The courses, essays and lesson questions for all three levels are listed along with comprehensive information on the Institute. This catalog also provides a clear picture of the philosophy of the Institute with regard to education and educational institutions.

One only need read one of the Renford Books to recognize that they are different. With a dedicated study of these books one can break the bonds of mechanical thinking and begin the process of evolution and unfoldment. The same old fuzzily stated esoteric ideas are absent. There is a clear and direct communication of the invariant principles in a way that any serious student can understand and find a path to run on.

Original Science

Science today draws on the contribution of early giants such as Hermes Trismegistus, Pythagoras, Socrates, Aristotle and others. At the same time they made these scientific contributions they were extraordinary philosophers. There were simply not the clearly established lines we have today between philosophy and science.

You can request a copy of the Renford Books Catalog at iamrenford@gmail.com. These books are available in paperback and as electronic books.

Government

In this book, original laws from ancient texts such as The Laws of Maat, The Code of Hammurabi and the Ten Commandments, are shown to be the core principles upon which our judicial system and systems of government are based. There were other such ancient text all of which the kings who brought them claimed were given to them by the gods on a mountain top. It is what all including the Law of Moses have in common as they all claim them to be a revelation exclusively for them by the gods to provide for the people.

This book explains how from these basic laws we have meandered through history and the divine right of kings to eventually arrive at constitutional law by the people and for the people.

Religions of the World

This book may not include every religious group in the world and there are many derivatives from each of the major religions. The major ones are covered using both the literalist and esoteric extremes. The Literalist side will be most interested in form, doctrine, and ritual. The esoteric side will be interested in the process of enlightenment and understanding. There will be some religions of which you will have limited knowledge. You can find information on the Internet with regard to any religion but you have to know what to look for. I think there will be some in this book you would not have known to look for.

The Contemporary Revealers

This book is a review of contemporary writers who have addressed and explained some, if not all, of the Universal Laws. This fact is not recognized by those who have written reviews of these authors and their books. It may be that they do not recognize the significance of these writings. For instance, people who write about Edgar Casey involve themselves in how accurate his readings of the future have been. They want to theorize about what he saw in political terms etc. They miss the significance of his identification and verifications of the Universal Laws. You will not hear from most Christian Ministers about the Universal Laws but Jesus himself said that he had come to reveal the secrets that had lain hidden from the foundations of the earth. He told his apostles that he had revealed the mysteries to them though they don't appear to have been astute students. This book features people who have revealed at least partially the Universal Laws.

The Language of the Mind

When we attempt to interpret a dream, especially those that are recurring, we have no hope unless we know the language being used. We think in pictures and it is motion pictures we receive. These pictures are symbols with which the inner being is using to talk to us. If we associate the dream only with the picture or scenes related to the experience in the relative conscious state while awake it is like trying to translate from Chinese to English using only Greek. It does not work! If we know the symbols we know the language of the mind. Most of us are not meditating and the only time the inner-being can talk to us is when we are asleep. If we attempt to interpret our dreams in the relative conscious language of our relative conscious lives we have the total confusion and fear-based interpretations of those who give us literal interpretations of the Book of Revelation

The Four Pillars

The Four Pillars is designed to provide practical steps and a guide to identifying and verifying the Universal Laws in your life experiences. The four pillars are Identification, Verification, Observation and Meditation. This book is currently being edited and it is expected to be available within 60 days. It is being added to the Universal Law Society.

My Way

In My Way I reveal the process from birth of finding my way. While often feeling lost or caught up in religious studies, and while experiencing the struggles of business, there was always this singular process of self-discovery. This book was written in the hope you may find a way to do the same.

Knabb Consulting

Connecting People and Business

Why would anyone leave a perfectly good job to start a business?

I have been asked that many times. After all, I've spent over 25 years in cost and managerial accounting, financial system projects and support, and managing enterprise-wide projects for companies in the foods conglomerate, payments, and healthcare spaces. All this work created solutions, processes, and efficiencies that ultimately saved big corporations thousands of man hours across many areas.

While small business might not be a spiritual calling, the impacts of Covid mandates compelled me to make changes so that I could invest more directly in my local community and its families.

People are the most important thing on this earth. Without people, the accumulation of stuff and knowledge has no purpose.

I started a business where I can use skills gained in the corporate world to help people achieve independence through business ownership and developing strong business networks. Families having this level of independence could arrange their lives in the best way for their family's needs, including that of the children and elders.

Knabb Consulting is a franchise consulting service that:

- Assesses the goals, work preferences, and needs of a family to create a short list of well-matched franchise brands selected for how they fit the information gained about the family.
- Educates the client about how franchise works, differences that can exist between categories and brands, and solutions and resources relevant to making good franchise investment choices.
- Introduces the client to helpful third-party resources like franchise attorneys, funding experts, accounts, business education resources, credit repair resources, and more.
- Supports the client through a series of interview cycles with selected brands and some of their existing franchisees.
- Provides post-investment support (if needed) to help the client find good partners for those business solutions not provided by the selected brand.
- Consults with existing independent business owners to navigate the steps to convert their businesses into a franchise brand that can sell agreements to new franchisees/investors.

Network in Action business networking groups is a franchise brand that supports member business owners and leaders through a collection of unique value propositions:

- Provides a Return-on-Investment guarantee for each member that is calculated at signing and every year at renewal.
- Hosts monthly networking group meetings that give members no less than 50 minutes of interactive discussions and activities inside the 90-minute meeting to facilitate relationship building.
- Conducts a professional background check on each member so that members can make referrals to other members with confidence.
- Provides $000s in business growth training and software that can be shared to each member's employees and colleagues.
- Creates option social and training opportunities that members can share with employees, colleagues, and other guests.

These two related businesses allow me to invest the bulk of my time in helping local people and businesses. Even so, I can leverage technology and a broad network of connections created over the years to offer these same services to some of those people located outside of Memphis. Whenever possible, introductions are made back to businesses in Memphis for the benefit of service providers here.

The RBR Hosts program has developed into a fraternity of teachers, healers, creators and service oriented personalities. We have formerly been limited to two hours per day broadcast time with 12 shows per week. Of course this limited the number of Hosts, the genres and the audience we could reach. We think that those who are producing these shows and working to provide information and services to listeners worldwide are dedicated and the potential for an expanded network is present. This is a diverse group and each host has appeal for a segment of the listener base and may create their own listener base. While we may have differences in belief systems, skills and approaches to the public the core intent is to serve. We have a variety of backgrounds but as hosts we all want the same thing. We want successful shows with a good audience base and to share what we have come to know by interviewing service oriented guests.

Contact iamrenford@gmail.com for information regarding your participation in the Hosts Association. We will forward the Hosts Association Package.

I work as a Finnish-Scandinavian tradition shaman. What is a shaman? This is a healer who creates changes in the energetic structures underlying your physical body. A tietaja, as we are known, can shift into other dimensions, finding often overlooked factors behind your physical, emotional, or spiritual challenges or discomforts. When we find and resolve the issue(s) in the subtle bodies, the physical body experiences restoration. For more, essays (blog), testimonials, and mission statement, go to:

THE RENFORD AFFIRMATIONS

I know that anything I can conceive and believe I can achieve. Everyday ideas are coming to me. Every day I gain more confidence because I believe in myself. God dwells in me, and I can access God Power by recognizing my innate powers.

I know that there are certain Universal Principles or Laws upon which all laws, including the laws of physics, rest. I am persistent in my identification of these Laws in my life. I am using my innate powers to come into harmony with these Laws of life. I know that these Laws are the Divine Self-Expression and that through understanding them in my life experiences, I can BE STILL AND KNOW GOD.

I see all problems as challenges that simply require a learning process. I love them because they exist in Divine Love for my benefit. I understand that proper perspective is necessary to begin any work and I'm daily developing the capability to view my life in proper perspective.

The essence of God is in me and I am pure potentiality. Every thought I have creates. I am aware that I can create destructively as easily as I can create constructively; therefore, my every thought is observed as if I were outside looking in. Negative and fearful thoughts are immediately apprehended and brought into the light from the dark corners and hidden caverns of my mind. In their place, creative and constructive thoughts are building the edifice of self-knowledge and understanding, which is my birthright.

I know that there are no limits upon the abundance that is available to me, except those that I place upon myself. I am releasing all thoughts that restrict or limit me. I am attracting all the skills, people and materials that I need to fulfill my primary purpose. These assets and attributes are daily being placed on the infrastructure that I have created in thought. I am manifesting what I have imaged in thought.

I know that I am not alone but part of the absolute unity of all. I know that every action has a reaction. I know that all is connected; therefore, there are always consequences of my thoughts, attitudes and actions. I observe this and daily create an ever-expanding positive force.

I am giving of myself every day in every way. I share my wealth, time and knowledge, and the cosmos rewards me in multiples of my giving. It is inevitable that I receive when I give, because this is an expression of a Universal Law.

I know that no matter what I give or receive, there is only one essential ingredient, and this ingredient is the makeup of God. IT IS LOVE. Every time I share my knowledge, wealth or time, I am giving packets of LOVE—Packets of God. Love is all that I have been given, and it is all that I can give. I give love freely and daily.

I know where I am, who and what I am, and what I am capable of. I know that my capacity for energetic activity, creative thought and love is endless and that my energy supplier, Universal Being, is infinite. I take responsibility for what I have and will create. I know that what I create in thought, and give the power of emotion to, will be manifested. I AM IN EVERY WAY CREATING MY LIFE! ~ ~ ~

LOGLINE: Where Dreams Are Born Again! A talent competition for artists between the ages of 30 to 80 who thought their chance for fame and fortune had past them by. We are giving them one last shot to showcase their talents to the world.

SYNOPSIS: In every city in America, there are people asking themselves what if.....

Golden Blast is a talent search showcase contest that targets people with talent in their 30s, 40s, 50s, 60s, 70s, and 80s who have missed their opportunity in the Entertainment Industry.

Contestants come from all over the world to showcase their talent on television worldwide, to win cash, contracts within the music industry, and national acclaim.

Contestants can choose from which category they want to perform a song from the 50s, 60s, 70s and 80s, including: R&B, Soul, Rock and Roll, Gospel, Country and Blues.

They then perform these songs and they are judged on talent, costume, style, and originality.

adrenaline. Opening night! We see the performance and the reactions of our Broadway director.

Cliff-hanger for his decision on who will be Broadway bound!

5. Re-cap of the series, the performances, the arguments, and finally... the decision. One of the people that landed a role, large or small in this little play is chosen. We share in the afterglow, the elation, and the disappointment of others. And sharing a dream come true for that one person selected.

6. Broadway New York!! Our winner is whisked around like a star. Taken backstage of a REAL Broadway production, immersed in the whole lifestyle. Meetings with Hollywood talent scouts, directors of other productions, agents, etc.

7. We see our small town hero take his leap of faith, jumping headfirst into a Broadway show. A dream is realized.

Humor Me:

Twin boys were as different in temperament as they were alike in looks. One was so optimistic that his parents were afraid for him. The other was so pessimistic that they wondered if he could ever achieve anything. Their parents decided to have a little fun at Christmas and gave the little pessimist everything he could possibly imagine, an air rifle, electric train and a laptop computer. The little optimist they gave a reinforced bag of horse manure. Christmas morning came and they asked the little pessimist what Santa Claus had brought him. He said, "I got an air rifle but I am afraid I will hurt somebody or shoot myself. I got an electric train but I am afraid I will electrocute myself. And I got a new laptop but there is so much bad stuff on the Internet.

They asked the little optimist what he got. He said, "I got a Shetland pony but he got away!

It certainly is true that the way we think and our attitudes determine what we create.
